

Publication : Mid Day

Date : Saturday, December 08, 2007

Edition : Bangalore

Page : 13

---

SR BUSINESS
CORRESPONDENT

Sunayana Suresh

*sunayana.suresh
@mid-day.com*

MUCH NEEDED

Travelling across Indian cities is painful not just for the visitors but for the locals too. Roads and localities are differently designed in every city and it doesn't take too much for one to get lost. A good GPS navigator is a blessing here. I'm sure GPS devices will be a hit at least in urban India over the next two years.