MAPMYINDIA'S NEW NAVIGATOR FINDS THE INDIAN SATNAV MARKET.

All Mapped Out

MapmyIndia, one of India's largest surveying and map-providing companies has launched the MapmyIndia Navigator, a portable GPS system. The Navigator boasts of complete, turn-by-turn coverage of 18 cities, along with important landmarks for another 150 towns as well as a complete map of national and state highways. The system is available on two hardware models, the Delphi Nav 200 and the AMAX 06GP5A, both of which can be mounted on the dashboard, and easily removed when required. k.

The Navigator is currently priced at Rs 22,000 across the country, and is available at leading car-accessory dealers and MapmyIndia.com.
